Finn watched as Wrenly emerged from the water, her scales shimmering in the sunlight. He had never seen anything so magnificent. The sea monster was even more awe-inspiring up close. Her eyes were as deep as the ocean itself, and her fins flowed with an ethereal grace.

"Finn," Wrenly said, her voice like a gentle melody, "it is time for you to embrace your destiny."

Finn's heart pounded in his chest. He had never felt so alive. "I'm ready," he whispered.

Together, they swam towards the heart of the kingdom, where the final battle against the Shadow King awaited them.
