The Story

George is a young boy who is bored with his grandmother. She is old and sick, and she spends most of her time in bed. George decides to make her a special medicine that will make her feel better. He goes to the kitchen and gathers all sorts of ingredients, including toothpaste, soap, and chocolate. He mixes them all together in a bowl and gives it to his grandmother to drink.

The next morning, George's grandmother wakes up feeling much better. She is no longer sick, and she is full of energy. She gets out of bed and starts to dance around the room. George is amazed, and he asks his grandmother how she feels.

"I feel marvellous!" she says. "I feel like I could jump over the moon!"

George is so happy that his grandmother is feeling better. He decides to give his medicine to all the other sick people in the village. He goes from house to house, giving everyone a spoonful of his marvellous medicine. Soon, everyone in the village is feeling better. They are all dancing and singing, and they are all very happy.
