Marxism is a political and economic philosophy that has been used to justify the destruction of America. This book exposes the Marxist strategy and provides a plan to defeat it.

The Marxist Strategy

The Marxist strategy for destroying America is based on the following principles:

- Class struggle: Marxists believe that society is divided into two classes: the bourgeoisie (owners of capital) and the proletariat (workers). They argue that the bourgeoisie exploits the proletariat and that the only way to achieve a just society is through a revolution that overthrows the bourgeoisie and establishes a dictatorship of the proletariat.

- Internationalism: Marxists believe that the working class is a global class and that the struggle for socialism should be waged on an international level. They argue that the bourgeoisie uses nationalism to divide the working class and prevent it from uniting against them.
- Violence: Marxists believe that violence is necessary to overthrow the bourgeoisie and establish a dictatorship of the proletariat. They argue that the bourgeoisie will not surrender their power willingly and that the only way to achieve socialism is through a violent revolution.

The Marxist Infiltration of America

Marxists have been infiltrating America for over a century. They have used a variety of tactics to spread their ideology, including:

- Education: Marxists have been teaching their ideology in schools and universities for decades. They have also established their own schools and universities, such as the New School for Social Research and the University of California, Berkeley.
- Media: Marxists have also been using the media to spread their ideology. They have established their own newspapers, magazines, and websites, and they have also infiltrated mainstream media outlets.
- Entertainment: Marxists have also been using the entertainment industry to spread their ideology. They have produced movies, TV shows, and music that promote Marxist ideas.
- Politics: Marxists have also been involved in politics. They have formed their own political parties and they have also infiltrated the Democratic Party.

The Impact of Marxism on America

Marxism has had a significant impact on America. It has led to the following:

- The rise of the welfare state: Marxists have argued that the government should provide for the basic needs of its citizens. This has led to the growth of the welfare state, which provides a safety net for the poor and the working class.
- The decline of the family: Marxists have argued that the family is a capitalist institution that oppresses women and children. This has led to the decline of the family, as more and more people choose to live outside of marriage and have children out of wedlock.
- The rise of crime: Marxists have argued that crime is a result of capitalism. They argue that the capitalist system creates a climate of poverty and inequality that leads to crime. This has led to a rise in crime, as more and more people turn to crime to survive.
- The decline of American power: Marxists have argued that capitalism is a decadent system that is doomed to fail. They argue that the United States is a declining power and that it will eventually be replaced by a socialist or communist society. This has led to a decline in American power, as the United States has lost its economic and military优势.

How to Defeat Marxism

There is a way to defeat Marxism. It is a plan that is based on the following principles:

- Education: We must educate ourselves about Marxism and its dangers. We must learn how to identify Marxist propaganda and how to counter it.
- Media: We must use the media to promote our own values and ideas. We must create our own newspapers, magazines, and websites, and we must also infiltrate mainstream media outlets.
- Entertainment: We must use the entertainment industry to promote our own values and ideas. We must produce movies, TV shows, and music that promote American values.
- Politics: We must be involved in politics. We must form our own political parties and we must also infiltrate the Republican Party.

If we follow this plan, we can defeat Marxism and preserve America for future generations.
